As of June 30, 2023.

Ratings, current as of September 2023, are subject to change. Ratings refer to the claims-paying ability of the insurance company and do not reflect the safety or performance of any investment product. The rating agencies listed are independent of each other and use proprietary evaluation criteria and ratings scales.

Ranking, current as of September 2023, is subject to change. The Comdex Ranking is a composite of all the ratings a company has received from the major rating agencies. It ranks insurers on a scale of 1 (lowest) to 100 in an effort to reduce confusion over ratings because each rating agency uses a different scale.

Superior ability to meet ongoing insurance obligations (second highest of 13 ratings, held since June 2009).

Very strong financial security characteristics (fourth highest of 21 ratings, held since August 2018).

Very strong capacity to meet policyholder and contract obligations on a timely basis (third highest of 21 ratings, held since June 2009).

Excellent financial security (fourth highest of 21 ratings, held since February 2009). The Lafayette Life Insurance Company is not rated by Moody’s.

Based on revenue as reported by “Fortune 500,” Fortune magazine, June 5, 2023. See Fortune.com/Fortune500 for methodology.

GAAP basis (as of June 30, 2023), with total assets of $70.029 billion, total liabilities of $60.413 billion, and total equity of $9.616 billion, as compared to the 3.6% average (as of December 31, 2022) of the 15 largest publicly traded life insurers doing business in the U.S.
